Notice to California Residents:

The state Rosenthal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act and the federal Fair Debt Collection Practices Act require that, except under unusual circumstances, collectors may not contact you before 8:00 AM or after 9:00 PM. They may not harass you by using threats of violence or arrest or by using obscene language. Collectors may not use false or misleading statements or call you at work if they know or have reason to know that you may not receive personal calls at work. For the most part, collectors may not tell another person, other than your attorney or spouse, about your debt. Collectors may contact another person to confirm your location or enforce a judgment. For more information about debt collection activities, you may contact the Federal Trade Commission at 877-FTC-HELP or www.ftc.gov.

You have the right to know what personal information is being collected about you, to know if your personal information is sold or disclosed and to whom, to say no to the sale of personal information, to access your personal information, and to equal service and price. Federal and state laws prohibit us from disclosing information about your debt to third parties. Personal information is collected solely for the purpose of debt recovery and remains part of our records until we determine the information is no longer needed, or as otherwise required by law. We do not sell or share your personal information.

We may collect the following categories of Personal Information:

- Identifying Information;
- Personal Information categories listed in California Customer Records Statute;
- Protected classification characteristics under California or Federal law;
- Internet or other electronic network activity information;
- Professional or employment-related information;
- Non-public education information (per the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act);

You may read our Privacy Policy at <https://www.rmscustomersupport.com> or request a written copy by contacting us.
